PRESS RELEASE

September 10, 2005

On this anniversary of the September 11, 2001 attacks, the U.S. Mission to Saudi Arabia joins people around the world in remembering all the victims of terrorism. These past four years have made it clear that terrorism knows no borders. Innocents in Riyadh, London, Madrid, Jeddah, New York, Bali, as well as in Baghdad and Washington have suffered at the hands of terrorists.

On behalf of the American people, the U.S. Mission in Saudi Arabia would like to thank the people of Saudi Arabia for standing with us as partners against terrorism. At this time we are particularly grateful for the efforts of the Saudi security forces which just last week successfully defeated terrorists in Dammam, sacrificing the lives of four heroic police officers. Please join us today in remembering all victims of terrorism.
